

Global Approaches to Habsburg History: Perspectives, Potentials, Payoffs, and Pathways

Universität Innsbruck, 2-3 June 2022

Claudiasaal (Herzog-Friedrich-Straße 3)

Programme

THURSDAY (2/6/22) – Claudiasaal (Herzog-Friedrich-Straße 3)

- 9:30 Opening Remarks
Ulrike Tanzer, Vice Rector for Research
Dirk Rupnow, Dean of the Philosophical-Historical Faculty
Jonathan Singerton, Host and Organiser
- 10:00 Keynote 1
Traffic: Cocaine Smuggling, Imperial Prestige and Global
Politics at the End of the Habsburg Era – Alison Frank Johnson (Harvard)
Comment: Pieter Judson (Florence)
- 11:15 BREAK
- 11:45 Panel 1 – Global Economies
Chair: Ellinor Forster
1. Natives and Newcomers: Political Economy and the challenge of the global in Habsburg Europe, 1680-1740 – William O'Reilly (Cambridge)
2. Habsburg Political Economy and Globalisation: Mercantilist Discourses and the Framing of Global Commerce during the Seventeenth and Early Eighteenth Centuries – Klemens Kaps (Linz)
3. Statistics as an Agent of Globalization: The Case of Habsburg Statisticians – Mátyás Erdélyi (Prague)
- 13:15 LUNCH
- 14:30 Panel 2 – Habsburg Orientalism
Chair: Gunda Barth-Scalmani
4. Austro-Hungarian Consuls: Global Actors of Diplomacy and Empire – Sven Mörsdorf (Florence)
5. The Orient as porta Habsburgica mundi: Travellers, Missionaries, and Experts Go East in the Age of Transformation – Barbara Haider-Wilson (Vienna)
6. Orientalism from an Alpine View: The German-Austrian Alpine Club and its Turkestan Expedition in 1913 – Kurt Scharr (Innsbruck)

16:00 BREAK

FRIDAY (3/6/22) – Claudiasaal (Herzog-Friedrich-Straße 3)

- 16:30 Panel 3 – Habsburg Hispanic and Lusophone Worlds
Chair: Mona Garloff
7. The Viennese Court as the Mediator amidst the Portuguese Crisis? Austrian Diplomacy during Vilafrancada and Abridada Revolts (1822-1825) – Oliver Zajac (Bratislava/Warsaw)
8. Kaiser Max in Mexiko: A Habsburg Perspective – Axel Körner (Leipzig)
- 9:00 Keynote 2
An epistemological view on the Austrian Empire's role in European colonialism – Walter Sauer (Vienna)
Comment: Eric Burton (Innsbruck)
- 10:15 BREAK
- 10:45 Panel 4 – Transimperial Encounters
Chair: Axel Körner
9. A Devilish Plan by the Jesuits, Anti-Jesuit Intrigue, or a Habsburg Plan for Global Expansion? The Case of Joseph Göbel and the Memorandum on the Austrian Colonisation of Northern Mexico – Markéta Křížová (Prague)
10. The House of Habsburg and Japanese Representations ca. 1740: Aspects of the Prince's Mirror from Jesuit Theatre – Haruka Oba (Kurume)
11. The Habsburg Lands and the Dutch East India Company – Olga Witmer (Cambridge)
12. Terra Australis or Terra Austriae? Austria-Hungary in the South Seas – Jonathan Singerton (Innsbruck)
- 12:45 LUNCH

13:45

Panel 5 – Global Gateways

- Chair: Stefan Ehrenpreis
13. Ostend: Developing a Habsburg Window upon the World – Michael-W. Serruys (Brussels)
14. The Austrian Colonial and Slave Trader: Friedrich von Romberg (1729-1819) and his Business Empire in the Austrian Netherlands – Magnus Ressel (Frankfurt/Greifswald)
15. Enterprising Merchants in the Global Atlantic: The Austrian Netherlands Trade with Western and Central Africa 1776-1786 – Stan Pannier (Brussels)

15:15 BREAK

15:45

Panel 6 – Material Interjections

- Chair: Jonathan Singerton
16. Mapping Early Modern Gift-Giving Networks: A Quantitative Study of Habsburg Exchanges of Non-European Goods – Joanna Ciemieńska (Lisbon)
17. Folklore from Near and Far: Museums and Colonial Ethnography in the Austro-Hungarian Empire – Corinne Geering (Leipzig)
18. Inserting the Habsburg Past into Global History: Notes towards a Mutual Reconfiguration of both Fields – Franz Fillafer (Vienna)

17:15

Concluding Discussion

SATURDAY (4/6/22)

- Departure from Hotel Engl (Innstraße 22)
09:30- Excursion to Schloss Ambras for 'eine
11:30 Weltreise' guided tour (voluntary)

Organisation

Jonathan Singerton (University of Innsbruck)

Copyright

Front: Library of Congress, Noua orbis terrarum delineatio singulari ratione accommodata meridiano tabb. Rudolphi astronomicarum by Philip Eckebrecht (Nuremberg, 1630). Item No. G3200 1630.E3.

Kooperation

Universität Innsbruck
Institut für Geschichtswissenschaften und Europäische Ethnologie
Italien-Zentrum
BritInn – Academic Network Britain-Innsbruck
FWF – Der Wissenschaftsfonds
TWF – Tiroler Wissenschaftsförderung